NEVER GIVE UP ACHIEVING

About Aaron Lindsay

Aaron is the second only American to ski from the coast of Antarctica to the South Pole alone. He holds the world record for the longest expedition from Hercules Inlet to the South Pole. He is an expert at staying motivated in the face of truly impossible odds in the worst conditions on the planet. He teaches how to achieve and maintain a positive attitude. Learn the techniques he used to achieve his goal of reaching the South Pole.

He is a rare adventurer who has over 20 years of corporate and academic experience, making him a unique speaker. Aaron holds a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering, a master's degree in computational science and is an Eagle Scout. His book, Antarctic Tears, is a gripping and emotional account of his journey across the frozen wastelands of Antarctica.

Aaron inspires audiences with his can-do attitude, stunning footage of his expeditions, and how to keep going when everything falls apart. He relates his experiences to leaders who face the unknown every day, where their decisions determine success or failure. Use Aaron to inspire your organization to future success.
